Community Conversations

conversations.westchesterlibraries.org

Westchester Community Conversations provide a safe place for people in the community to come together to talk about their aspirations, concerns and how they want their community to move forward. These are small-group moderated discussions following a model developed by The Harwood Institute in over 30 years of community engagement.

Senior Law Day Collaborative and the Westchester Library System are partnered to build our understanding of the seniors we serve in Westchester County. Our shared aim is to understand the context of the lives of those within the community and root our work in your needs. The result – future resources allocated to what matters to you – our community.

Listed below are five opportunities to join a Westchester Community Conversation. Each conversation will be led by Elena Falcone, Westchester Library System’s Director of Public Innovation & Engagement.
